COUNTY WIDE APPEAL MADE TO VACCINATE

Owing to the fact that there are 3,500 or more cases of smallpox in Ohio, and cases have developed in Wellsville, Salem, Leetonia, East Palestine, Columbiana and other points in this county, the heads of the boards of health in the city and county districts have issued a bulletin to the public urging universal vaccination. The bulletin follows:

"We, the undersigned commissioners of health of the various communities of the county realizing the present danger of the rapid spread of smallpox and the possibility of it reaching the epidemic stage as it has in various other parts of the state, urge most strongly the vaccination against smallpox of as many people as possible at the earliest possible date.

"We recognize vaccination as the only real preventative of smallpox and would ask that an honest effort be made by each resident of our various districts to thus help in the prevention of further spread of smallpox."

Signed—Chas. H. Bailey M. D., commissioner of health, East Liverpool; M. C. Tarr, M. D., commissioner of health, Wellsville; R. M. Schwartz, commissioner of health, Columbiana county and Salem.

10,000 Legion Posts Honor Stars And Stripes Today

Indianapolis, June 14.—More than 10,000 posts of the American Legion at home and abroad today have organized their communities to show proper deference to the Stars and Stripes on Flag day.

The American Legion's campaign to place the American flag on every church steeple and schoolhouse has brought results in almost every city and town included in the Legion post rolls.

In connection with the national observance of Flag day, F. W. Galbraith, Jr., Legion national commander, made the following statement just prior to his death a few days ago:

"Flags are like people, they are full of personality, endowed with the characteristics, traditions, ideals—and faults.

"These qualities flags borrow from the nations they represent, the peoples over whom they wave. If a nation is great and benign, striving to make the Golden Rule international, as well as an individual tenet, then is the flag of that nation a glorious emblem and a symbol of right and truth. But if the nation is a mean, a jealous and an untrustworthy group, then its flag is only a bit of clred cloth.

"Down through the ages men have fashioned banners; have marched beneath them into battle and toiled beneath them in peace. They have died for their flags. Flags have been the first bright thing to which the child has thrilled with recognition, the last thing taken by the soldier to his grave.

"But is the flag worthy of such reverence? Only, indeed, if those who revere it have a group conscience and group aspiration to be honorable and just.

"Our flag was born when the nation was an infant. The breeze that first rippled its starry folds brought whisperings of troubled events violence and bloodshed. But our flag lived on to see the nation live and grow and prosper. Our flag has been carried into many battles, but never on the side of conquest. It has known grave dangers, but never has been sullied by a nation's shame.

"This flag that ripples in the wind today is worthy of our reverence because we of this nation have striven and always must strive to keep our ideals lofty. Today we will pledge again our love for our flag and our firm purpose to serve it. Our pledge made today and acted every day, will keep the Stars and Stripes glorious."

COLORS OF SINN FEIN ABOVE UNION JACK IN LABOR CONCLAVE HALL

Denver, June 14.—Irish sympathizers, draping the Sinn Fein colors above the English "Union Jack" in the convention hall of the American Federation of Labor, served notice that they intended making the Irish question paramount even to the labor problems to come before the annual conclave of America's great labor body.

A fight over the Irish resolutions to be presented will be a contest between Samuel Gompers and Eamonn De Valera, president of the "Irish republic," to determine which one of them shall dictate the Irish policies of the federation, according to developments today.

Resolutions written by Harry Boland, secretary to De Valera and "in accord with the wishes of the Irish republic," will be introduced as they now stand, or slightly modified, or form the basis of whatever other resolutions are submitted.

This was made clear by the Irish leaders at a meeting held to draft their program for the convention. A committee appointed by the meeting remained in session nearly all night.

It was rumored, Boland's resolutions provide for the appointment of a labor commission of three, to be selected by the convention here to go over to England and Ireland to co-operate in action with the British and Irish trade unions. It also provides for the publication of a list of British-made goods sold in this country and the firms selling them in each issue of the Federationist, the official organ of the American Federation of Labor, together with a proclamation of boycott against them.

"BIG TIM" MURPHY HELD AS "BRAINS" OF POSTAL THEFT

Third Of $380,000 Loot Is Recovered In Home Of Father-in-law

CONFESSES HE TOOK PART IN ROBBERIES

Political Boss And Labor Leader Says He May Tell More Later

Chicago, June 14.—With Timothy D (Big Tim) Murphy, political boss and labor leader, again under arrest, postal authorities expressed the conviction today that they had seized the "brains" of the postal bandits operating in the Chicago district and had cleared up the Polk street postoffice robbery of April 6, when $380,000 loot was stolen.

In a midnight raid upon the home of Big Tim's father-in-law, federal agents recovered $112,900 in cash and bonds.

Murphy confessed early today, according to postal authorities, that he was implicated in the Polk street mail robbery.

Vincenzo Cosmano, Murphy's lieutenant in labor circles, was being detained for questioning.

Murphy, postal inspectors said, denied he took part in the actual holdup at the Polk street depot, perpetrated by half a dozen men.

"I'm holding the sack for someone else," Murphy is reported to have said. "I got the stuff, all right, but I wasn't involved in the actual robbery. I may tell something more later. But I've got to protect somebody."

Two mail clerks have made confessions, postal inspectors said, naming Big Tim not only in the Polk street robbery, but also in the $100,000 mail holdup at Pullman, a suburb.

Loot Found in Trunk

Most of the loot recovered was contained in a big trunk that had been secreted in the attic at the home of William Diggs, father-in-law of Murphy.

This trunk is alleged to have been sent to Diggs' home several days ago by Murphy. Postal operatives declared Murphy admitted having received part of the Polk street loot and they further asserted they believed he also engineered that holdup.

W. J. Fahey, postal inspector, who arrested Murphy and Cosmano last Februaryin connection with Pullman mail robbery of last August, declared six witnesses to that robebry have identified Murphy and Cosmano at various times.

Until yesterday, Murphy was at liberty, under $200,000 bond. The arrests were made at the headquarters of the Gas House Workers' union, of which Murphy is president. It followed the confession of Ralph Terer, a railway mail clerk "dupe," who positively identified Murphy as the ringleader of the mail bandits' gang.

Murphy, who has been a picturesque power in local labor and political circles—once even calling and directing a strike when in jail—is said to have given information through which the actual perpetrators of the daring Polk street robbery are expected to be seized, the inspectors assert. Murphy, after being told it was useless for him to "stall" further, and that he had best "come clean," led the detectives to his father-in-law's home, where the trunk was opened.

Reckless Driving

A CARNIVAL of accidents, more or less serious but all contributing to public disorder and fear, has driven the police authorities of Youngstown to the taking of drastic measures to bring this condition to an end and to make the streets of that city at least measurably safe for persons who are willing to take the precautions which it is the duty of every pedestrian to exercise for his own protection.

On Saturday Police Chief Watkins, appalled by the increasing number of collisions and accidents of other nature, declared that "There is too much reckless driving in Youngstown." At the same time he issued strict orders to his officers to arrest every person whom they saw driving at a speed which appeared unreasonable in crowded streets. He is determined to make his campaign for public safety effective, and will deal severely with offenders who may be caught.

The conditions which have aroused Youngstown exist in about the same degree in Salem and every other city and town, and along the rural highways as well. The careful autoist driving in the country finds himself in as much danger from reckless speeders who insist on keeping the middle of the road and driving every other car into the ditch as he does from crowded traffic and unexpected crossing collisions when in the city.

The time has come when a universal drive is needed against the reckless motorists who are making our streets and roads an arena of death and maiming. Prompt police action followed by relentless application of the law by justices, mayors and judges is the only present way to deal with such a public danger as this. Human life is too precious to allow of any more temporizing with a menace of this kind.

Women And Ofice

WHEN the time expired last week for filing declarations of candidacy for office to be voted on at the August primaries no woman had entered the lists in Salem. When none of the fair sex appeared in the contest, doubtless the mere men who seek nomination heaved one of Josiah Allen's wife "sithes" of relief to know that they would not have to find some new method of campaigning suitable to a contest with feminine opponents.

But such is not the situaton in some places in Columbiana county. The newly enfranchised women are in the political arena in Wellsville, Lisbon and Leetonia. One Wellsville woman is a candidate for membership in city council. In Lisbon two seek nomination as village solons, while in Leetonia one woman is an aspirant for the village clerkship. In each case the candidate is a Republican.

The slowness of women to seek office is doubtless partly due to the restraining advice of the League of Women Voters, which sensible organization has taken the stand that the entry of women into the fight for public office should be slow and never simply as a feminist movement. The league also takes the position that it is not wise for women to vote for women merely because they are women, but always that women should choose between a male and a female candidate simply on the ground of personal superiority for office regardless of sex. In this same spirit the women are beginning to take their place in the exercise of their new civic rights, and their appearance in politics is sure to be for the public good.

Now is the time to cut that grass and those ugly weeds on vacant lots in this city. They are not only unsightly but are approaching the time when by going to seed the weeds will scatter their progeny by the thousands on all surrounding lots and make themselves more of a nuisance than they now are. Every lot owner owes it to the city to keep his land free from wild growth.

Congress now has on hand the Sims speech probe, the Tulsa probe, the navy probe, the army probe, the Ford-Newberry probe, the business probe, the profiteer probe, the air service probe, the airplane accident probe, etc., and so on. Perhaps in this will be found one of the leading reasons why congress has failed utterly to get done any of the things it was called together to do which are uppermost in the popular mind.

20 YEARS AGO

(Issue of June 14, 1901)

The relations between the United States and Spain are now just about as they were before the war. Our exports to that country in the fiscal year, will be greater, with possibly a single exception, than in any preceding year.

A military helmet which has been worn in the war of 1812 and a pair of silk mitts worn during the Revolutionary war by the great grandmother of Harvey Robinson, Lisbon, were among the relics exhibited at the annual meeting of the Columbiana County Pioneer and Historical society yesterday at Lisbon. Joseph Koll died at 11:45 p. m. Thursday at his home on Franklin ave, after several months illness. He was secretary and treasurer of the Sheehan Manufacturing company.

EXTEND AUDITORS TERMS

Columbus, June 14.—It is not necessary for present incumbents of the county auditor's office throughout the state to obtain new commissions from the governor or to give a new bond to cover the period of extension of office—from the third Monday of October, this year, to the second Monday of March, 1923, provided for in a law enacted by the state legislature this year. This ruling was given by Attorney General Price to officials of the state bureau of public accounting.

When 250 eighth grade graduates from rural schools of Columbiana county are gathered in the grand stand at the county fair grounds at 2 p. m. next Saturday for graduation exercises, with members of their families and friends, the big county fair building will be filled to capacity. You can't beat a Camel, because you can't beat the tobacco that goes into Camels.

That's why Camels are the choice of men who know and love fine tobacco. They know what makes Camels so smooth, so fragrant and mellow-mild.

They'll tell you that the expert Camel blend of choice Turkish and Domestic tobaccos makes a cigarette smoke you can't equal—no matter what you pay.

But it doesn't take an expert to tell Camel quality. You'll spot it the very first puff. Try Camels yourself.

BOB SAYS
"Re-Tire With Vacuum Cup Tires"

Vacuum Cup Tires have always been top notch in the Tire World and they are better today than they ever were and cheaper by far.

You can cut your tire bills in half by becoming a Vacuum Cup booster and user. If you have owned a car for any length of time you no doubt have had unpleasant experiences with bad tires. We do not claim anything unreasonable in Vacuum Cup Tires and like everything else, a bad one will crop out once in a great while, even under the most rigid inspection of expert tire men. They slip by without detection but when they do we take care of you right here and there is no delay or unpleasant arguments.

LEETONIA SCHEDULES HOMESTEAD CHAMPIONS

The Homestead Grays, colored champions of 1920, will be the attraction at Leetonia Sunday when they stack up against the Fabricated Steel team.

The colored nine played in Salem twice last season and were on the winning end on both occasions.

The team has been strengthened by the addition of a new third baseman and one outfielder.

Washington, the big center fielder who is called the Babe Ruth of the nine, has been hitting true to form all season and has been taking his turn on the mound.

The little shortstop Williams will be seen in his old position along with Harris on second and Posey in left field.

The Leetonia team has been playing first class ball all season and a good game is expected.

Manager Ready has booked some fast teams and is making an effort to bring either Oil City or Franklin to Leetonia.

EX-HIGHS WILL PLAY IRISH NINE THURSDAY

The Irish Regulars and a team of ex-Highs will clash at 3 p. m. Thursday at Reilly field in what is expected to be one of the best amateur games of the season.

Pete Litty of Ohio State university or "Dinty" Moore of Miami university probably will be on the mound for the ex-Highs.

The Irish Regulars have been strengthened by the addition of new outfielders.

Whinnery-Hoover

Marked by simplicity, yet beautiful, was the wedding of Mrs. Rebecca Carey Whinnery and Orvil Hoover at the home of the bride's parents, Dr. and Mrs. A. C. Yengling, Tenth st., at 5 p. m. Monday.

The ring service was read by Rev. H. L. Miller, pastor of the Christian church, and only immediate relatives of the couple witnessed the nuptials. The bride was gowned in grey crepe de chene. There were no attendants

The home throughout was prettily decorated in white lilies, white digitalis, maiden hair ferns and American flags, one of which was used for a background for the wedding. A dinner followed the ceremony and the same flowers were used to decorate the table.

The bride is an attractive young woman and well known in Salem social circles. Mr. Hoover served with the American expeditionary forces in France for a year and a half and is acting commander of Charles H. Carey post No. 56, American Legion. He is assistant cashier at the Farmers National bank.

—Christine Kerr Davis.

WHAT TO EAT.

FOR those who are fond of hominy, try cooking it in bacon fat after it has been cooked in boiling water until tender, or the canned variety may be used, draining it before frying.

Delicious Salad.

Take halves of canned pears, arrange on head lettuce. Fill the centers with chopped nuts and pour over it a dressing made of whipped cream and one cake of snappy cream cheese, mixed and beaten with a Dover egg beater.

May Party Cakes.

Break into a large bowl six eggs, one cupful of sugar and three-fourths of a cupful of softened butter (not melted). Set the bowl in hot water and beat until the butter is well mixed with the ingredients. Add one cupful of flour, sifting it in a little at a time while beating and continue to beat until the mixture thickens slightly. Pour into a shallow pan lined with greased paper and bake until firm. When cold cut in fancy shapes and decorate—or use for jelly sandwiches.

Bran Bread.

Take two cupfuls of bran, one-half cupful of molasses, one-quarter cupful of sugar, one teaspoonful of salt, two cupfuls of sour milk, one teaspoonful of soda, three and one-half cupfuls of flour, one-half cupful of chopped raisins, add one beaten egg, mix all together and bake in a slow oven an hour and twenty minutes.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Mary Ann Benner

Mrs. Mary Ann Benner, 78, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Emma Yeagley, north of Homeworth, Sunday evening. Mrs. Benner had resided in the vicinity of Homeworth all her married life; she had been a widow 30 years, five children survive, as follows: Samantha Kelly, of Salem; Marion Benner, Sebring; Emma Yeagley, with whom she lived; Frank Benner, North Georgetown; Florence Conrad, Homeworth. A short service will be held at the house at 10 a. m. Wednesday and the funeral party will go to the Reading church, where the sermon will be preached.

The tailor of the future will take his measurements for a suit of clothes with the camera. A special tape measure marked with big figures is fitted from the neck to the feet, and three others around the back, waist and hips. A photograph is then taken of the customer from the front, side, and back. The tailor thus obtains a permanent record with all the necessary measurements.

Lost Sunday Dinner by Mistake.

Changing cars in midseason ended as disastrously for a real estate dealer as changing horses in midstream. The dealer has ridden for several years in a car of rather ancient vintage. Recently he bought a new car of the same make.

Saturday night he drove his new car to the city market. He parked it beside an old car. He bought a bushel of apples, a big roast and a week's supply of vegetables.

Probably it was force of habit, his friends say in explaining the consequences. He placed his purchases in the old car. Then he returned to the stall to add further to his supply. On returning he discovered his mistake. The old car had been driven away carrying his Sunday dinner and his week's supply of vegetables.—Kansas City Star.

Says His Prescription Has Powerful Influence Over Rheumatism

Mr. James H. Allen suffered for year with rheumatism. Many times this terrible disease left him helpless and unable to work.

He finally decided, after years of ceaseless study, that no one can be free from rheumatism until the accumulated impurities, commonly called uric acid deposits were dissolved in the joints and muscles and expelled from the body.

With this idea in mind he consulted physicians, made experiments and finally compounded a prescription that quickly and completely banished every sign and symptom of rheumatism from his system.

He freely gave his discovery to others who took it, with what might be called marvelous success. After years of urging he decided to let sufferers everywhere know about his discovery through the newspapers. The J. H. Lease Drug Co., Floding's Pharmacy and Bolger & French have been appointed agents for Allenrhu in this vicinity with the understanding that they will freely return the purchase money on the first two bottles to all who state they received no benefit.

LESTER NEW DIRECTOR

William Mather Lewis Resigns—Selling Campaign Started by Government.

Columbus, O.—(Special.)—The Savings Division office here of the United States Treasury department has just been notified that Orrin C. Lester, assistant director of savings, has been made acting director, succeeding William Mather Lewis, resigned.

Mr. Lester has been in touch with the work for the last several years. He immediately launched into a selling campaign, calling upon the district directors to push the sale of government securities to the limit.

The record of Ohio in the matter of sales has been cited to Mr. Lester as a pertinent example for the balance of the country to follow. Ohio always has stressed the matter of selling government savings securities as a direct way of teaching Thrift.

SMALL BEGINNINGS SHOW BIG RESULTS

Many great enterprises begin in a small way. Many a successful advertiser has begun by using classified advertisements in a modest way. These brought good returns, which enabled the business to be developed, and eventually large advertisements were profitably used. Intelligent use of the little ads in The Salem News either by advertiser or reader will prove profitable.

Washington Man's Remarkable Recovery—All Credit to This Famous Home Remedy.

"For 25 years I was troubled with a nervous condition," said H. H. Riddle, 249 W. Spruce street, Washington, Pa., and he continues: "I lost weight and was troubled with gas after eating. It helped me wonderfully, for my nervousness is all about gone, and I have no further trouble with my stomach or gas. I am gaining in weight and strength right along. I can recommend Nerv-Worth to any one and feel that it will help them." If your nervous condition is bad, your whole system will show the effects of it. CHAUNCEY DEPEW REVISITS CAPITAL

HIS APPEARANCE GIVES RISE TO MEMORIES OF THE DAYS OF LONG AGO.

CANNON IS NEARLY AS OLD

General Gibson at Ninety-Four and General Gordon at Eighty-Nine, Sometimes Seen Walking the Streets of Washington Together.

By EDWARD B. CLARK.

Washington.—Chauncey M. Depew, former United States senator from New York, has just rounded out a visit to the capital. Mr. Depew is 87 years old. Joseph G. Cannon of Illinois, aged 84, is still an active member of the lower house of congress. Brig. Gen. Horatio G. Gibson, oldest living graduate of West Point, is walking the streets of the capital with fairly youthful stride at the age of 94. With him occasionally as a walking companion appears Brig. Gen. David S. Gordon, 89 years old.

Over in the capitol on the wall of one of the rooms in the senate wing hangs a picture called "The Meeting of the Electoral Commission." The scene is laid in the Supreme court chamber in the year 1876, and it represents a session of the electoral commission which met to decide the famous Hayes-Tilden controversy over the election to the presidency.

The painting is not a large one, but brought into it are some 50 or 60 famous Americans of the day of its execution. Every figure is a portrait. It is possible today for men and women who have lived around about 60 years to recognize most of the faces in this picture; that is, to recognize them, provided the onlooker knows something of American history.

There are few men today, however, still in active official life who were engaged in labor of like kind in that centennial year when this picture was painted. Joseph G. Cannon is the only man in either house of congress who held office in the centennial year. With a slight interval of time he has been holding office ever since.

Few of Them Remembered Now.

Looking on the picture the thought is, how soon are men forgotten. It is probable today that to Young America not more than a dozen of the men and women who appear in the electoral commission's painting are known by name. In the foreground are two United States senators from the Empire state. One of them is better known than the other and his name is one of the few names of the men in the picture which probably is borne in the memory of the average person. One of the senators is Roscoe Conkling and the other Francis Kernan, one a Republican and the other a Democrat.

In this day when woman has come into her own in all the walks of life, how many of the younger generation of American women will recognize the name of Grace Greenwood? In the electoral commission's picture the portrait of Grace Greenwood appears. She is sitting in the gallery with her really beautiful face set to the duty, or the pleasure, whichever it may be, of attention to the proceedings.

Grace Greenwood was the nom de plume of one of the most famous American woman writers of her day. Her maiden name was Clarke, and her married name was Lippincot. She was the first woman correspondent of an American newspaper to be sent to Europe for continued writing service. She was a friend of Thackeray, of Dickens, and of the other great English writers of that day, and for a long time she was co-editor with N. P. Willis of a magazine which was published in Philadelphia.

Chauncey M. Depew and Joseph G. Cannon, veterans of American politics, and Horatio G. Gibson and Harry S. Gordon, veterans of the American army, were middle-aged men when this picture was painted.

Memories of Depew.

Mr. Depew has been making some speeches in Washington. He was always in demand as a speaker, and his voice today is as resonant as ever it was and the stories that he tells are just as sharply pointed. As for Mr. Cannon, he speaks nearly every day of his life. The appearance of Mr. Depew in Washington has started some of the older men in public service to the work of recalling something of the New Yorker's career. Mr. Depew is known today as being about as stalwart a Republican in politics as one can find. How many members of the younger generation know that this man, whose Republicanism is of the deep-dyed sort, in 1872 bolted his party when it was led by Gen. Ulysses S. Grant, voted the Democratic ticket and ran for office in the state of New York against a candidate of the party to which today his allegiance is undoubted and to which it has been undoubted for nearly fifty years?

Men of the much older generation, like those who have been named, tie up Washington with the older days. Not one of the four men but has walked the streets of this capital when they were unpaved and deep in mire, and has found his way at night along the thoroughfares by the flickering of feeble gas jets at the street corners, and occasionally by the light of the old oil lamp.

The parasol was used in Egypt in Cleopatra's reign.

BABY BORN ON PEACE DAY

After Mother Had Been Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Salisbury, Mass.—"For seven years I had a female trouble and such bearing-down pains I could hardly do my housework. The doctor said, 'If you can have another baby it might be the best thing for you but I am afraid you cannot.' I began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and my baby was born on 'Peace Day'. If women would only take your Vegetable Compound they would have better health. I always recommend your Vegetable Compound to the neighbors."—Mrs. TRACY PATTEN, 2 Lincoln Ave., Salisbury, Massachusetts.

The experience of maternity should not be approached without careful physical preparation, as it is impossible for a weak sickly wife to bring healthy children into the world.

Therefore if a woman is suffering from a displacement, backache, inflammation, ulceration, bearing-down pains, headaches, nervousness or "the blues" she should profit by Mrs. Patten's experience, take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and be restored to health.

FRAUD IN OBTAINING DIVORCE IS CHARGED

Lisbon, June 14. — If there was fraud and collusion between Harry T. Blackburn and his wife, Bertha, at the time she procured a divorce from him in the courts here during the September term, 1919, he was a party to it, and equally responsible for the very fraud of which he is now complaining, and the court will not enjoin Mrs. Blackburn from preceeding to collect the unpaid alimony due her under the court's decree at the time the divorce was granted.

This is the gist of the ruling of the court in sustaining the demurrer, and also the motion filed by Mrs. Blackburn to set aside the temporary injunction, which restrained her from proceeding with the collection of the money due her. When the divorce was granted the court gave Mrs. Blackburn an order for alimony in the sum of $15 per month, and Blackburn, in a separate action filed in court, charged that she obtained the decree by fraud, as, after she had filed her action for divorce she had agreed with him that if he would not appear against her, that she would not ask for or accept any alimony against him. He stated that he remained out of the case, although he was not guilty of any of the charges she made against him, and then she secured the alimony order.

Last November Judge Moore temporarily restrained the former wife from collecting the alimony due, but now the injunction has been dissolved.

PESKY BED BUGS

Bedbugs lay an average of seven eggs per day. Under favorable conditions they hatch in five days of which two-thirds are females. They mature to adult size and are capable of laying in four weeks. How many bedbugs would you have in a year if you left one female or egg unmolested for one year? To rid the pesky bedbug, you can readily see how necessary it is to use a preparation that will kill the eggs as well as the live ones. P. D. Q. has been demonstrated by the leading Hospitals, Hotels and Railroad Companies that the safest and most economical way to stop future generations of bedbugs, roaches, fleas and ants is to use the new discovery "Pesky Devils Quietus "P. D. Q."

A 35c package of P. D. Q. makes a quart, enough to kill a million bedbugs, roaches, fleas and cooties and at the same time destroy their eggs.

Impossible for them to exist when P. D. Q. is properly used. Free, patent spout in every package to get the pesky devils in the hard-to-get-at places and save the juice.

Special Hospital and Hotel size $2.50 —makes five gallons of P. D. Q.—your druggist has it or can get it for you, or sent prepaid upon receipt of price by the Owl Chemical Co., Terre Haute, Ind. Success of P. D. Q. has caused imitators; genuine P. D. Q. is never peddled.

Sold by J. H. Lease Drug Co., Floding's Drug Co., and other leading druggists.

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. Catarrhal Deafness requires constitutional treatment. HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE is a constitutional remedy. Catarrhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced, your hearing may be destroyed forever. HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE acts through the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system, thus reducing the inflammation and restoring normal conditions.

STOCKS

CHANGES ARE VIOLENT

New York, June 14.—The stock market was irregular in the early trading this morning, but changes in prices were violent.
